FIELD DAY '67

By all accounts it was a success, notwithstanding the occasional rain - like all night - steaks that disappeared mysteriously, etc. Thanks to Jim Hatch and his culinary skill all hands ate hearty meals. Total contacts was 871, total score of 5226, in the five transmitter class. Are we ready for next year?

CONVENTION

On June 7th, 1967, the President of OARC announced that Jack Bassil, VE3YT, had agreed to take over the organization of the Ontario Convention. Early in July, Jack assembled a group of volunteers to assist him in this task. Committee were set up as follows:

Chairman:	Jack Bassil, VE3YT
Publicity:	Bob Knapp, VE3CDG
	Gord Grant, VE3DY
Finance:	L. Guy Eon, VE3LM
Legal Adv:	Charlie Grove, VE3CT
Prizes and Displays:	Jack Wittingham, VE3YC
Pre-registration:	L. Guy Eon, VE3LM
Tickets:	H.H. Shepherd, VE3EZY
Program:	Jim Strain, VE3ESG
Program Administrator:	Phil Pittman, VE3DQK

Ladies Program:	Hugh Borbridge, VE3CYV
On-the-Air publicity:	Jack Barlow, VE3CEB Harry Hayes, VE3BEB
Telephone Committee:	Bill Cousins, VE3CTK
Mailing Lists:	Eleanor Van Fleet
Misc.:	Bassil, Eon and Co.

This group has met regularly every Tuesday night and much effort has gone into the various actions required. Since time was of the essence, shortcuts had to be taken. By early September progress was such that a successful convention was indicated.

The true measure of its success, that is the attendance, is in the hands of the members of the club. This is YOUR Convention and your support is essential.

The Ottawa Valley Mobile Radio Club is strongly supporting this convention. Their members will provide communications and directions for out-of-town hams coming into the city.

With the OARC and the OVMRC behind this effort, success will be assured.

CONTEST

VE3CRA, applying logic to Club activities asked himself "why" and didn't get a satisfying answer. He now offers $20.00 to the OARC club member who in about 1500 words states best:

- (a) Why should there be an amateur radio club in Ottawa?
- (b) Why does the author feel that it is worth his while to attend, and what does he feel that the club does for him?
- (c) What else would he like to see in club activities?
- (d) In what way does the author identify with and participate in the club's activities.

Only serious efforts will be considered but humour will not be a disqualifying factor.
